

have fun. be silly. cure Rett Syndrome!

Thursday, April 1st

bring your spare change
and wear your silliest outfit to school!

Our school is helping kick off Autism Awareness Month with this fun event! All students are invited to come to school on April Fools' Day dressed up in a silly outfit! Money raised will be donated to Rett Syndrome research, the most severe form of autism.

Thank you!

Organized by:

School contact: